

Terrorist Organizations

The following terrorist organizations are on the US State Department list of terrorist organizations and are preapproved for your work in the CRJ628 course. If there is another international terrorist organization that you would like to focus on, you must receive prior approval from your instructor. You may find additional information on these organizations using the companion website for your Martin (2016) text and the Central Intelligence Agency World Factbook (<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook>).
